Students, Faculty and Staff

ofe arat tvi asli1l1cenblu as t suc s sfblll1blte tvfe all semester. We all need to be careful not to become lax in following the safety policies and protocols that have proven so effective for us as a community. It has been your diligence that has kept us all on track, and we do not want to experience any slipups that come with letting our guard down. Please keep doing what you are doing, and we will all weather this storm together.

I wish you luck with the remainder of your semester and look forward to brighter days ahead.

Cordially,
