Daemen College Faculty, Staff, and Students

Dear Colleagues,

I would like to welcome all students, faculty, and staff to another exciting academic year at Daemen College after what I hope was a rewarding summer.

Recently, we have all been witnessing incideofs acial intolerance and violence in cities and on college campuses throughout the natiod, lawanted to take this opportunity to reaffirm Daemen College' commitment to inclusiveness, collegialitylerance, mutual respected human dignity The College seeks to pride a safeplace forall students, faculty and staff to learn, grow, and thrive does not condone any language or behavior that violates the accepted norms of decency and mutual respect

Please take a moment to familiarize yourself with Daemen's normalisation policy: (http://www.daemen.edu/about/policiesd-procedures/nondiscriminatiesquatopportunitypolicy). If you ever feel that youra a victim of an incident of bias, I invite you to report the incidents://www.daemen.edu/studelife/diversityandmulticultural-affairs/reportingincident).

I join our Director of Diversity and Multicultural Affairs Alvin Roberts, in wishing you a welcoming, tolerant, and ceptingclimate here at Daemen, and we invite you to let us know if there are measures we can take to enhance the cost lating are of inclusion and collegiality.

I wish you and all members of the Daemen Family a rewarding and productive academic year.

Cordially,

Gary A. Olson President
